MICHELLE ROBERTS - RESUME

My very first show dog was a Beagle, Ch Clarion Cantaloupe CD, Snoop, way back in 1978. A wonderful dog who I had many happy memories and experiences with both showing and doing obedience with, albeit the latter proving very challenging.

Since 1983, I have owned, showed and bred Boxers with success, under the TASWEST prefix.

I have had the privilege of judging the first Boxer National in Kuala Lumpur and also in Ireland in previous years. I am now licensed to judge 6 of the 7 groups and am currently studying my final group of Terriers.

I feel it is always an honour to judge ones' own breeds, and although I no longer own Beagles, I have always maintained a love for them.

Thank you to the WA Beagle Club for inviting me to judge today. I have been so looking forward to the appointment.
